GSR GROUPS REPORTS: See reports that follow

OLD BUSINESS: (announced by Jeremy) Regional nomination for Robert O. to go into GRC Inc pool, which means he will just go in the pool – not be voted in. Took a vote on the nomination – passed. 16/0/0

OPEN FORUM: Art wanted to nominate Charles & Jim S. for the GRC Inc pool. It was announced that they need to be present at RSC next weekend to give their resume. 14 people voted to agree with the nomination.

Topic about purchasing a computer for Treasurer was discussed further – regarding keeping good financial records and purchasing legal software (Quickbooks instead of Excel) to operate as a responsible “body” of society. (see further discussion in “New Business”)

Tiffany will keep the extra $500 in the budget so we can decide what to do with it at a later time.

Decided 9 over 7 votes to meet at Summit again next month since we will not be able to meet at Klondike any longer. May be meeting at NA Way after that, alternating with Summit Ridge.

NEW BUSINESS: Topic for area to purchase a PC for the Treasurer’s position – there was a lot of discussion about whether or not purchasing Matt a computer is necessary and questions asked about how the position was carried out before him. Treasurers before him brought their own computer to ASC. He does have a computer but is unable to use it due to unknown technical issues. It was discussed that he should not keep written records, as it would not be helpful to look back on when needed. It was determined that it is not an urgent matter and will be taken back to home groups to vote on.

**TAKE BACK TO GROUPS:

TOPIC #1212 -- To purchase a computer for Treasurer to be able to perform his duties.

New meeting, Diversity is the Key, meets in Decatur on Saturdays from 8:30 pm – 9:30 pm. See their group report for address and more info.

The NA Way Group is moving their meeting location – see flyer at end of minutes.

H & I Sub-Committee Report

East End has three meetings that are now solid. The two long-running efforts at GRAN continue to provide a stable message of recovery. Vic F, new in the post of Chair of the sub-committee, re-visited the men's meeting at GRAN. He and the Panel Leader there, Phil R, discussed better orientation for speakers and future plans for stability.

Debbie V, Panel Leader for the women's side, continues to need volunteers to be Speakers. The entire Area needs to step up on their willingness to volunteer. Please call Debbie at 770-905-1222! Without more support from the admittedly smaller female NA community, H&I cannot entertain the possibility of any new meeting in women's facilities. A Panel Leader that could spearhead such outreach would be a huge help.

Vic F, as Panel Leader for Rockdale House for Men, reports that meetings now feature a rotating circle of speakers, discussion leaders, and support-by-attendance / sharing at the meeting. Because of the long-term nature of the facility, we have greater freedom to mix styles and formats, and do in-depth discussion of the Basic Text and It Works: How and Why (multiple copies supplied by Rockdale House).

We have two volunteers, plus Vic, willing to go through orientation and get the needed credentials to support Tom W's efforts at Gwinnet Jail. But we need more information and are actively pursuing better communications. which we received at today's meeting.
New Panel Leader - Tom W.

We have re-focused our Orientation efforts for new volunteers to H&I, with the goal of a clean message of NA recovery. In that spirit, we are talking to North Atlanta Area's H&I subcommittee about a joint Learning Day. Opening discussions were held today. and further talks will continue with PR and GRCNA.

Henry County Jail has made an informal request for a NA meeting. While we, along with PR, will follow-up on that request, we need a new Panel Leader in or nearby the facility, who could spearhead arrangements, speakers, etc. If anyone has the interest, NOW is the time to step up. South Side Area works with this facility already.

In general, any meeting or facility (new or existing) should be founded upon an enthusiastic and willing Panel Leader who can work with Vic, PR, the sub-committee and the facility. Our thanks to Debbie and Phil for proving that level of service at GRAN.

Vic will attend next week's Regional meeting of H&I. For anyone wanting H&I information, call Vic F at 770-608-0404.
