Regional Public Relations Report

PR has been busier this past quarter. Helplines call have greatly increased. We helped organize and carry out the Atlanta Symposium on February 11th at the Westin Atlanta Airport with the support of 4 zones, including the Southeastern Zonal Forum. We invited 3 different Recovery Community Organizations. Hank A from Coweta F.O.R.C.E., Jon & Jenn Reboot Jackson, the Change Center were invited. The Change Center was unable to attend. Lisa G from Piedmont Area and Peyton W. from North Atlanta represented mental health professionals. Reese Daniel represented residential treatment. Among the non-NA member attendees attending: Josh Becker and Tara Zellous from the Georgia Accountability Court Judges Council also attended and represented Georgia Drug Courts. Andy Maddox, Public Defender from Northeast Georgia Area also attended briefly via Zoom, as he has literally in court. We presented some information on N.A., got some feedback on how well we are doing as a viable option of recovery for potential new members, and received some suggestions for how to improve. Ideas of reaching out to the additional RCO's to get literature and meeting info to them was discussed. Also, having internal discussions amongst NA members regarding medically assisted treatment was recommended before another professional's roundtable. NA members may want to read https://www.na.org/admin/include/spaw2/uploads/pdf/pr/2306_na_prmat_1021.pdf. After the Symposium we have had more contact with RCO's, including Peers Empower Peers in Sandy Springs. A new meeting at their location is joining. North Atlanta Area. PR assisted the local area in giving a PR presentation to them. Regional PR also assisted with a PR presentation to Sgt. Vickers with the RSAT treatment program as part of Forsyth County Jail. North Atlanta H&I will be starting a meeting there.

PR has been printing a lot of business cards and posters for the areas to distribute. We also designed (thanks to Amanda G from Northeast GA) NA bus cards for the Chatham Area Transit Authority to go in 63 buses for 12 weeks in Savannah. We are just waiting to hear when they have been placed to start. Our project of getting bus ads on MARTA buses in Fulton, Dekalb and Clayton Counties has been put on hold temporarily because the Advertising company OutFront no longer has the contract. And our quote and signed agreement was with them.

PR is planning its programming for the PR/H&I room at GRCNA 40. We are planning on having a sample PR presentation to the community for educational purposes. Also, we will be conducting a phoneline training. And, we are planning on hosting an open dialogue on Medically Assisted Treatment per the suggestion coming from the ATL Symposium. Lastly, we will be doing some joint programming with H&I.

Robert A has declined the opportunity to become the next PR Facilitator. Charles L from Savannah is the one willing applicant. I will be submitting his service resume.

Regional Task Panel Report/History Book

Hello everyone! Following challenges to reach interviewees and come together in person due to COVID, the NA in GA History Book Project Committee is making huge strides now in the transcription of interviews and historical tv shows, some being the only recorded speaking by these individuals regarding the early days of NA.

The transcribed interviews have been printed and organized by alphabetical order into an accordion file that gives us a better idea of the material for the book. They are also being cross-referenced by the (geographical) areas of Narcotics Anonymous in our region.

The next steps are for these transcriptions to be edited and reviewed for the relevant parts to be included and assigned to specific chapters in the book and then for the actual chapters to be written in a cohesive and easy-to-read and enjoyable format.

All of us on the committee are excited about the writing and editing process that brings us closer to the book being published. We invite those of you who are interested to contact the committee to get involved with this process. Also, please announce in your area meetings and the meetings you go to that we are ready to welcome members who want to be involved in the final stages of writing, editing, and production of The History of NA in GA!

Regional Additional Needs Report

Additional needs point of contact
Report
3-12-22

For the past few Months additional Needs has been quiet in the Georgia region. I have not received any emails nor phone calls concerning additional needs from members in our region. For the past few months I have been heavily involved in the south eastern zonal forum service symposium that was held here in Atlanta this year. Helping make sure that the service symposium was fully accessible to all who wanted to attend. We had multiple ASL interpreters, and even sign language interpreters from Brazil. If you would like to learn more about how accessible the service symposium was this year, please reach out to me or the south eastern zonal forum.

I am also monitoring and assisting as best I can to help make our upcoming regional convention as accessible as possible.

One thing I would like to mention is, no one in our fellowship is immune to having additional needs. This is something that could happen early in life, or later in life. So therefore this is a very important area of our fellowship and service. Again I urge this body and the RCM's to reach out to your areas and groups and start the conversation of additional needs.

Now I am only one addict, and I am happy and proud to do my service position but I need help.

Now I do not have the ability to go to every area in our region and bring up this topic of additional needs. Trying to make sure that we are reaching every addict no matter what. I am very aware that information gets lost and/or filtered out between region, areas, and groups. Whether or not this is the reason why I have never received any feedback on reaching out to the areas in groups in our region about additional needs, I don't know.

But I would like to propose a thought to this body: let's start talking about having a additional needs committee in the Georgia region.

Please keep in mind you do not have to have additional needs to be of service in an additional needs committee.

Thank you for allowing me to serve.

In loving service,
Jocho B.

Regional Open Forum Discussions

- Taking care of home, even though meetings dropping off, donations are growing, making sure we take care of us before sending money down
- Midtown questions about PPP loan, if your area has a concern to talk about please come to RCM issues on Saturday for open dialogue, a lot to discuss about loan, emergency relief loan when covid happened, reduced as many expenses as NAWS could, is this a violation of traditions, is not and this is in FIPT section 4 trustee powers, money is sitting in reserve account currently, applied for loan forgiveness but might be outside of principles, we should repay loan, still in discussion, nothing was done in malice
- If we had more donations and literature sales, we wouldn't be having this discussion in the first place, we need to be more fully self-supporting
- Inflation and costs going up, donations could reflect that, starts at the group level
- NAWS keeping money in bank account, still not running at capacity, what if it is needed next year for projects in the CAR
- Ask for records if anything is spent

NA World Services Answer to PPP Loan

Oct 2020 CP Webinar

Hi everyone, I'm Jack and I'm an addict and, as you heard, I recently became the Treasurer of the NA World Services, Inc. I want to discuss the world board's decision to participate in the US government programs that were available to many for-profit and non-profit businesses as a result of the global pandemic. I know many conference participants may not be familiar with these programs, particularly those of you who live outside the United States.

In the spring of 2020, when COVID-19 devastated the US economy as it hurt economies around the world, several US government programs were quickly enacted. These included the Economic Injury Disaster Loan or EIDL and the Payroll Protection Program or PPP. Both programs offered low-interest loans to qualifying entities. The primary difference is the EIDL program included up to a $10,000 grant as well as a long-term, low-interest loan with an amount that was capped shortly after the program began at $150,000. In contrast, the PPP program offered a short-term, low-interest loan, a portion of which could be reduced, subject to meeting certain criteria.

The purpose of the program is to keep workers off unemployment and keep the economy stable. The PPP amount that a business was eligible for was solely based on the amount of wages for which social security taxes had already been paid in the previous year. At the time the Payroll Protection Program was created, it was announced that the goal of the program was captured in its name: to protect paychecks. If a business met certain criteria on how the money they received was used, so that the spending achieved the government's goal of keeping workers from receiving unemployment and keeping the economy stable, that all or a portion of the amount received could be reduced. The credit the government would reduce the principal by is based on achieving those goals.

As we have previously reported, the world board approved receiving $150,000 from the EIDL program and $676,740 from the PPP program. We also were offered a $10,000 grant from the EIDL program that we did not accept.

In Narcotics Anonymous our 7th Tradition principle is clear that we decline all outside contributions. Based on our philosophy, we did not accept the $10,000 grant, as we believed it could constitute accepting an outside contribution.

We know we must decline all outside contributions, so the question the board will need to answer soon is this: If we accept the credit to our loan from the PPP program are we accepting an outside contribution? As NA World Services treasurer, my recommendation to the world board, and to all of you, is that we accept this loan reduction. I don't believe taking this credit is accepting an outside contribution.

My reasons for believing this are simple: this is a credit given to any business entity that had employees for which social security wages were reported and paid, and the credit is only available to businesses that use the PPP funds to protect paychecks and keep workers paid by their employer, instead of receiving government unemployment compensation. The loan reduction is essentially a credit of taxes previously paid, in that the amount that any entity will have credited to their PPP principal balance is approximately the same or less than the social security and other government employer taxes that were paid in the previous year for each employee. In other words, the credit we would take will not exceed the amount of money previously paid in taxes.

As a state and federally recognized non-profit entity (in the US we are federally recognized as a 501c3), NA World Services enjoys many financial advantages such as not paying state or federal income taxes on that portion of our income that exceeds our expenses, as well as other benefits and deductions available to all qualified non-profit business entities. These benefits are not an outside contribution. They are benefits available to all qualified non-profit entities. Accepting legitimate financial advantages and tax deductions as part of our business practices is essential for an organization like ours that, among many other things, distributes literature around the world. The same logic naturally extends to the portion of the PPP credit NA World Services is eligible to receive, which is why I recommend that we accept it.

While I have your attention, I want to take a moment to remind us of how important it is to change our culture in Narcotics Anonymous regarding the principle of self-support. While our Fellowship is generally excellent at declining all outside contributions, the natural corollary of this is that we must receive “inside” contributions to carry out our primary purpose. Historically, most of World Services’ income has come from excess revenue from literature sales, not from member contributions. One thing the pandemic has made clear is that we can’t continue to rely on the sale of literature to fund the services that we provide. I know some of you are feeling a similar need on a regional level to turn away from dependence on event income to fund services.

Dec 2020 CP Webinar

Jack reported to you on the last Conference participant web meeting that, as the Treasurer of NA World Services, he was recommending that we apply for the loan credit available to eligible recipients of a Paycheck Protection Program loan. The Board decided to take that recommendation, and we will be applying for a credit. We expect that credit to be approximately 50% or so of the amount we received, with the balance being paid back over time. Jack explained the thinking behind this decision in October, so I don’t think I’ll be saying anything new here.

The Board gave serious consideration to the concern that applying for the credit is not in harmony with our Seventh Tradition, but that’s not a view that they agree with. We are all—Board and staff—clear that NA must decline outside contributions. That’s why we refused the $10,000 grant we were offered. However, to accept a credit that we qualify for under the PPP program doesn’t fall into that category, in the Board’s view. The purpose of the PPP, or Payroll Protection Program, is to guarantee the paychecks of employees that are still working and keep them off unemployment. The program was only available to businesses who had paid social security wages, and the credits are approximately the same or less than the social security and other government employer taxes that were paid in the previous year. In this sense, the credit is equivalent to a tax credit.

It is not uncommon for NA, at every level, not just World Services, to take advantage of credits and discounts when we are able to. Nonprofit status itself affords a tax abatement for World Services and for many other incorporated NA service bodies and conventions. The total tax credits can be as high as 40% in some states. For us in California, it’s about 28% of taxable income. Another common example is credits and discounts on meeting spaces. We take advantage of these offers regularly when planning the World Convention, and we know regions and areas do similarly. At a Group level, our meeting spaces are often negotiated at a heavily reduced rate, or offered in exchange for literature or help fixing up the facility. Accepting credits and discounts, which are not contributions, is the financially responsible thing to do in these cases; it's part of standard business practice for nonprofit organizations, and we see applying for the PPP credit in that light.

We are also prepared to apply for phase two of the PPP program if one is rolled out and we qualify.

Dec 2020 NAWS News

PPP

As many of you know, World Services received money as part of the Paycheck Protection Program rolled out by the US government in response to the economic crisis brought on by the pandemic. The goal of the program was to keep workers off unemployment. The amount of money a business was eligible to receive was based on the amount of wages for which social security taxes were paid in the previous year.

Businesses that use the money to “protect paychecks,” that is, to keep workers off unemployment, can apply for a credit to reduce the principle of the loan amount. World Services will be applying for a credit, which we expect to be approximately 50% of the amount we received.

We have heard concern from some members that applying for the credit would not be in line with the principles of the Seventh Tradition. We talked about this at length in our Board meetings, and in the end, we determined that applying for the credit does not undermine any of our spiritual principles. We are committed to declining outside contributions—that is not negotiable, but we do not believe accepting a credit that we qualify for under the PPP program falls into that category. As we said, the program was only available to businesses who had paid social security wages, and the credits are approximately the same or less than the social security and other government employer taxes that were paid in the previous year. In this sense, the credit is equivalent to a tax credit.

Taking advantage of credits and discounts is good business sense, and it happens at every level of NA service. Incorporated NA service bodies and conventions benefit from tax credits that can be up to 40% in some states. In California, where World Services is incorporated, the credit is about 28% of taxable income. The World Convention and many other NA conventions use credits and discounts on meeting spaces when planning these events, and even many NA groups often negotiate meeting spaces at a heavily discounted rate. 4

Accepting credits and discounts, which are not contributions, is the financially responsible thing to do in these cases; it's part of standard business practice for nonprofit organizations, and we see applying for the PPP credit in that light.

We are also prepared to apply for phase two of the PPP program if one is rolled out and we qualify.

July 2021 NAWS News

Financial Update

More than a year into the pandemic, our most pressing news continues to be financial.

First, the good news—for the first time in decades, contributions represented 25% of our income during the last fiscal year. That's up from 10% the year before. Our gratitude is boundless. Thank you everyone who has contributed and helped us stay afloat for the past 16 months.

NA members tend to be good in a crisis, and contributions are higher than they have ever been before. However, that is only part of the story: Literature sales continue to be depressed. It is going to take us a long time to build back from the financial crisis of the past year. Until NA meetings worldwide are taking place in-person again, we do not expect literature sales to be anything near what they used to be. Without the PPP program and contributions from members, groups, and service bodies, we would be in dire shape. Our reserves have kept us functioning, and building them back up is part of regaining the ground we have lost.

So, all of that is to say, thank you and keep it up!
